

1. Can Method 11 samples be collected and recovered in the field and transported to a laboratory for analysis at a later date?

Recovered Method 11 samples may be analyzed off-site at a laboratory if the analysis is performed within a week. Ensure that all samples are transferred from the shipping container to the volumetric flask when initiating the analysis.